

BLOCKADE BROKEN.

DEPARTURE OF THE ICE-BOUND FLEET FROM HAMPTON ROADS.

Wolf-Trap Light-House Towed Ashore—Steamers Regular Schedule—James-River Ice Troublesome.

(Special telegram to the Dispatch.)

Norfolk, Va., January 31.—The exodus of the ice-bound fleet in the lower harbor commenced today, and by tomorrow night all will be gone.

The schooner Morkill packed on the Wolf-Trap light-horse at the cape and towed to the south shore to drift on the beach, as it was dangerous to navigation.

Both the Washington-Line steamers and the Hay Line have resumed regular schedules. The ice in the bay is fast breaking up and drifting out to sea, and occasional very little trouble after leaving York river. The ice from James river continues very troublesome in Hampton Roads.

BUTTS AT BUCK.

A large number of bux swept from their fastenings in the bay and rivers are seen at sea not far from the cape. The light-ship at House's Bluff is again showing regular motion.

The ocean tug Mars, of this harbor, left last night for Bermuda to tow north a disabled bark.

The schooner Addie Henry, ashore at Cape Hatteras, has been floated.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.

About 3 o'clock this morning the grocery and liquor-store of Allen J. Hope, on Mantua street in Berkeley, was discovered on fire and entirely destroyed. Above the store was a residence, but unoccupied. The property was insured. It is not known how the fire originated.

A contract has been given for the erection of 100 more dwellings at West Norfolk to accommodate people who desire to live there.

BAKER-LAWRENCE.

Mr. J. D. Baker, of Cape Charles City, and Miss Grace L. Lawrence, daughter of Mr. David H. Lawrence, were united in marriage at the residence of the bride's parents, on High street, yesterday afternoon.

The funeral of the late John W. Baker, who took place yesterday afternoon from St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal church.

Mr. W. M. Mason, a prominent citizen, was knocked down and robbed by negroes on Tenth street yesterday.

Rev. A. L. Saunders, of Fredericksburg, has secured four scholarships from the Presbyterian church of that city for the Synod of Virginia.

A GALLANT EX-CONFEDERATE GONE.

He Saw the Colors of the Grand Old Army.

(Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.)

Petersburg, Va., January 31.—Mr. Andrew T. Ashby, an old and well-known citizen of Chesterfield county, died at his home, in Etrick, this morning shortly after midnight, after an illness of only four days. He was apparently hale and hearty when he retired to bed on Thursday night, but soon afterwards was taken with a violent chill, which was followed by a fatal pneumonia.

Mr. Ashby was a native of Halifax county, where in 1812 he moved to this city. He was the son of John Ashby, a prominent citizen of that county.

The funeral of the late Mr. Ashby will take place tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock from the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Ashby, on High street.
